PUTTING DOWN LIQUOR IS EUROPEAN PEOPLE EAGER TO TRAVEL, WELL ANY PLACE

RUDAPEST, Aug. 28 -The desire but inability of once wealthy people to travel westward to Eu-people to travel westward to European scaports and on to the United States, owher to passport and money difficulties, is one of the results of the war to be noted in Central Europe, the Balkans and far into Asia Minor.

The intenseness of this desire was registered recently by Admiral Horthy, Regent of Hungary, who said: "Why, I wake up nights thinking of the sea, and in my dreams I hear the sound of the ocean. Consider I have sailed the world around and now I can't even get a glimpse of blue water. I'm seasick in a new sense."

"How I envy you in your travents."

"How I envy you in your trav-els," said Queen Marie of Ku-mania, to the travel-weary cor-respondent. "Think of the glori-ous freedom of going somewhere, far away."
"If it were not for my duty to "If it were not for my duty to my country," said Mustapha Kemel Pasha, the national leader, one hot breathless night in Sivas, Turkey, "I should be tempted to board ship and steam away, anywhere so long as it went westward. No one but ourselves can realize how tired and numb the mind becomes, out here, through the loss of contact with the countries and people we knew in hapthe loss of contact with the countries and people we know in happier days."

Women, wives of teachers and professors, of formerly well-to-do farmers, who have been so sorely hit by the war, suffer especially from the lack of the cheap holidays they were ones accustomed to take in Switzerland, the Italian Riviera, Paris or London, where Riviera, Paris or London, where they saw the old sights anew, the styles in clothes brushed up their acquaintance with languages and came home content to await next year's trip.

"I really believe many of us shall fall sick if we are not able to satisfy this travel fever," said Mrs. E. Vambery, wife of the Hungarian criminologist, who was a great traveler as was his father great traveler as was his father "Have pity on we noor trav-elers. To think that now I can't buy a new dress, I who once had the money to, roam where I would." before him.

The ministers of foreign affairs in these countries are besieged by applications of their fellow citizens who want to go away as diplomatic representatives or consuls and many near important men at home are willing to accept positions as cierts abroad merely positions as clerks abroad, merely for the chance of traveling This fever is not limited to the
